Lanyards

In many workplaces, it is a requirement to wear your Photo ID card visibly. One of the reasons is that everyone should be able to see that the person has authorization to stay on the premises. The card is usually carried in a card holder that is either attached to a clip that is clipped directly to the clothes, or hooked to a lanyard. Lanyards with your logo are an excellent way to spread your company name. Contact us and we will tell you more about profiled products.
